

Quote uit e-mail van Founding Father van Charilove, Chris Omusi:

.....certainly, you are all going to be very pleased with the dormitory when the work is finished. Our dream, prayer and hope has been that, some day in Nigeria, orphans and children with special needs will have the opportunity to live well and happily. We thank you for your contributions. Every cent of the money is judiciously used. In fact, this is one of the main reasons we are slow.

We can not afford to waste any money, not even one euro. And, so, we take every care to avoid doing it wrong -to avoid repeating a job which in the end can be very costly and wasteful. We do not have the technology and the expertise obtainable in the Netherlands to do it very fast and accurate. So, we rather choose the policy of "slow and steady."

Zo 'n gulle en open lach, zulke blijde kinderen zijn alle donaties en moeite dubbel en dwars waard !!!
